Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to inform you that your project has been selected as Promising in the IRCAI Top 100 2025 – Global Index of AI Innovations for advancing sustainability and the 17 UN Sustainable Development Goals.

Following a highly competitive evaluation process with submissions from across all UNESCO regions, your proposal was rated Outstanding by our expert reviewers and has been selected for inclusion in this year's Top 100 Global Index.

Please find attached the official announcement letter.

Your project is now:

- Publicly featured on the IRCAI Top 100 projects page
- Included in the Global AI for SDGs Index
- Invited to join the IRCAI Top 100 LinkedIn Group to connect with fellow selected initiatives
- Welcome to share the official and short-form public announcements available via IRCAI channels

Our team will be in touch in the coming weeks regarding matchmaking and outreach opportunities, compute requests, visibility, and next steps.

On behalf of IRCAI under the auspices of UNESCO, congratulations on this significant achievement. We look forward to following your continued impact in advancing AI for sustainable development.

Warm regards,
Davor Orlic
